

IN THE HIGH COURT OF JUDICATURE AT BOMBAY
CIVIL APPELLATE JURISDICTION
CIVIL APPLICATION NO. 1281 OF 2005
IN
SECOND APPEAL NO. 66 OF 2002

Smt. Janabai Janku Waikar

& Anr.

..Appellants

versus

Smt. Gangabai N. Kumbhar & Ors.

..Respondents

Mr. R. S. Sapkal for the Appellants.

CORAM : D. G. DESHPANDE, J.

DATE : 13TH OCTOBER, 2005

P.C. :

1. Heard Advocate for the Appellants.

2. This application is taken out by the appellants for review of the order of this court on 6.2.2002. In that order cost of Rs.2,000/- was saddled upon the appellants for seeking circulation in the matter where there was no urgency and then seeking two weeks time when the matter came for hearing. Now this application is taken out for setting aside that order. This application is not at all maintainable. That order is not subject to review, it could not be reviewed. Application has to be rejected and dismissed.

3. Counsel for the appellants contended that two months time should be granted for payment of costs, that prayer has to be rejected because this order was passed on 6.2.2002 more than 3 years and 7 months have lapsed. Prayer is rejected.

4. Application is dismissed.

13.10.2005

(D.G. DESHPANDE, J.)